Music and Movement

Join us for another series of music and movement with your little ones at the Mission. Katie Petrucci of Echo Music Studio will be teaching throughout the fall! Echo Music classes offer songs and activities that have been passed down through generations! Our activities help children develop a tuneful voice, a rhythmic sense of beat and expressive movement through dance, and refine their listening skills, all while bonding with their caretaker as we develop their musical abilities and holistic growth. Classes are designed for infant through pre-K.

Katrina Revenaugh From Graffiti to High Art

Date: Oct. 28th

Time: 5:00-7:00 pm

Location: East Building

With her work, Katrina hopes the viewer appreciates graffiti and street art in a whole new way. She photographs it, extracts little bits and pieces from the shots and uses them like found objects to create layered abstract collages and patterns on wood, metal or fabric with a very painterly quality. The essence of the graffiti is still there, but it's a totally reimagined piece.

Marcus Dowty From Photograph to Art

Date: Sept. 30th

Time: 5:00-7:00 pm

Location: East Building

World travels have taken Marcus to six of the seven continents and ninety four countries. Using the camera lens to filter the exposure of an event, Marcus focuses on the more important story. His portfolio truly reflects images of a path less taken.

Nancy Oglesby Finding Your Inner Artist Through Alcohol Painting

Date: Nov. 11th

Time: 5:00-7:00 pm

Location: East Building

Growing up in a home surrounded by art, Nancy discovered at an early age that she had inherited her father's eye for all things beautiful. Her delight has been in experimenting with many diverse forms of artistic expression. Nancy's joy now is in alcohol painting on tiles, where she can coax this very fluid medium into works full of movement and life.
