

Privacy Policy

Fairway Parks & Recreation is fully committed to the protection of your confidentiality and privacy in all our business practices. All personal information collected on our website or in person, will be used solely by us to help serve you as conveniently and efficiently as possible. Your personal information will never be shared with any third parties. Our goal is to provide the highest quality service to you and your family, and to us protecting your privacy is part and parcel in delivering this service, so we take every necessary precaution to ensure that your privacy is protected.

Any personal information collected will be used specifically for the purpose it is intended for; so for instance, your credit card will only be requested when you are ready to pay for one of our programs. Your email address will be used to keep you informed about all our upcoming programs, registration deadlines, and any pertinent information regarding our programs, your information will never be shared with any third parties.